All Sessions:	Artist references and artwork inspiration will be shown throughout. Every session, learning will happen through a mix of individual drawing, tutor demos, group exercises, group discussion, peer-to-peer sharing, experimentation and relaxed critiques. Be excited to share and learn! - Zoe
22 April 2025	Response Intro to the course and each other through various interesting, critical and fun exercises.  Experimenting with a range of drawing techniques in response to still life subjects: how drawing approaches can be adapted depending on intention.	NO
29 April 2025	Expressive Life Drawing Mark making and edge and tone qualities. How the length of a pose affects our drawing focus, drawing response and mark application.	YES
6 May 2025	Measurement and Composition Considering 'accuracy' in drawings. How best to tackle a longer drawing to sustain interest.	NO
13 May 2025	Visualisation, Memory, Imagination Exercises to aid visualisation and drawing from memory, both of which can then be applied to help you draw from your imagination (whether the intended results are surreal or realistic).	NO
20 May 2025	Self Portrait - Colour Working from reference photographs or a mirror we'll consider how colour can help communicate a particular mood or feeling.	NO
27 May 2025	Portrait/Figure Drawing: Clothed Pose An opportunity to further explore portrait drawing from a model, concentrate on drawing the clothed figure or include both.	YES Clothed
3 June 2025	Perspective, Space and Collage We'll consider the rules of perspective and then experiment with mixed media and collage to create pieces which communicate structures and spaces in a variety of ways.	NO
10 June 2025	Out &amp; About Drawing in the vicinity of Borough Market with the opportunity to capture the energy and movement of the environment, and/or to practice drawing with perspective following the previous week's class. Areas of Borough Market are under cover so this class can run regardless of the weather.	NO
