04/10/2025	Draw for a day at the V&A! The course is designed to enable students to express a creative response to museum artworks, as well as develop an understanding of how artworks are put together to create particular impressions upon the viewer. The course will start by exploring the Cast Courts at the V&A, after which students will have the opportunity to draw from the collection. There will be a further tour in the afternoon and the day will conclude with a final review of the drawings made.
