DATE	TOPICS / SKILLS COVERED
7 March 2026	You will be introduced to the technique of collagraph looking at other artists work and reviewing a range of different methods and materials for making your designs. Your tutor will demonstrate creating and inking up a collagraph plate and printing using the presses in the studio. In the morning you will create small sampler plates to try out techniques and practise printing; then you will spend the rest of the day planning and making two A5 plates which will dry off overnight.
8 March 2026	You will print your plates created on the first day and explore colour variations, layering and incorporating block printing methods with intaglio inking. You will create an edition of prints to take away.
