4 May 2024	You will spend the first day creating a clay figure sculpture from a life model. In the morning, you will do a number of quick 'sketches' in clay and be shown different ways of looking at the figure in a 3D form, moving from representational to more abstract. In the afternoon we will choose a pose to work from. You will learn how to start modelling from clay by observational, measuring and modelling techniques. You will be taught how to look at the model and measure.	YES 1/2
5 May 2024	The next day you will carry on with your sculpture whilst applying the techniques you have been shown. Practising your observational skills whilst working in 3D. After finishing your sculpture, firing options will be discussed.	YES 2/2
