

Course Title	Measurement & Proportion in Drawing
Tutor	Adele Wagstaff
Studio session Dates	Fridays: 17th January 2025 – 28th March 2025 (Reading week: 17th – 21st February)
Session Times	10:30AM - 4:30PM
Course Code	E2402D02
Studio	Bankside Studio 3
Course Fees	£675

Course overview

In this course you will develop a straightforward approach to using systems of measurement when drawing from life or two-dimensional sources. You will gain confidence using measuring techniques in drawing. The first part of the course will be dedicated to drawing figures and objects from life, followed by an assignment where your own photographs will provide the subject material for finished studies.

Learning outcomes

Students will be able to:

- Understand essential artistic anatomy, applying principles to create drawings with accurate proportions.
- Select and apply relevant systems of measurement in observational drawing.
- Develop and apply drawing skills.
- Apply safe working practices at all times.

What Level is the course and do I need any particular skills?

This course is suitable for all levels.

About your tutor

Adele Wagstaff trained as a painter at Newcastle University and the Slade School of Fine Art. She has been shortlisted for the Jerwood Drawing Prize and the BP Portrait Award, and her work has been exhibited in the National Portrait Gallery, Royal West of England Academy and Canadian Portrait Academy. Following on from her graduation from the Slade School of Art, where she focused on working from the nude in sustained poses, her practice continues to look at the human figure and still life.

Adele teaches at West Dean College, Putney School of Art & Design and the Royal Academy of Arts. She has written two books Painting Still life in Oils 2012 and Painting the Nude 2015, both published by the Crowood Press.
