Course overview

In this course, you'll explore the process behind making imaginative, figurative compositions. Drawing and visualising images that are in your imagination is difficult to do - this course looks at various techniques artists use to bring an imagined image into reality. Much of the course focuses on acquiring the skills and information necessary to construct imagined compositions, encouraging a variety of approaches and experimentation.

Learning outcomes

Students will be able to:

- Analyse the work of others and apply findings to their own work.
- Apply creative visualisation techniques in the development of an imagined composition.
- Develop and apply drawing skills.
- Create an original (imagined) composition.
- Research, plan and complete a self initiated project.
- Apply safe working practices at all times.

What Level is the course and do I need any particular skills?

This course is suitable for all levels, though some prior drawing or picture-making experience is recommended.

Weekly breakdown

Below is a weekly breakdown of what will be covered. Please note that some of the lessons require very specific materials, without which it would be difficult to participate in the class. Please make note of 'What you'll need' for each lesson, and materials prepared in advance. Please note that in-depth presentations start at 10.30am, and attending these in full is essential to taking part in each project. Please also note that for many lessons, use of a mobile and internet will be required for research.

Wk	Date	Topic/Activity	Location & Tutor(s)	What you'll need	Model
1	Wednesday 15th January 2025	Picasso's 'Guernica'. You will study the process behind the making of Picasso's 'Guernica'. Picasso made over 60 drawings as a way of working out the composition and individual components of the painting, and you will copy the drawings as a way of understanding the journey behind its making, from quick thumbnail sketches, to the large finished painting.	Bankside Studio 3 Carl Randall	Pencils, pen, charcoal, erasers, A4 or A3 sketchbooks, ink, brushes.	No
2	Wednesday 22nd January 2025	Figurines & Maquettes. As a way of understanding how an artist can construct and visualise multiple figure compositions, you will look at a technique used by some Old Masters and contemporary painters, that of maquettes. This is a valuable way to help you visualise a scene in 3D and create original and complex compositions.	Bankside Studio 3 Carl Randall	Plasticine, sculpting knives/tools, pencils, pen, A3 sketchbooks, erasers. Mobile phone with internet access, to send photos to office for printing.	No
3	Wednesday 29th January 2025	Narrative Drawing (paper Collage/Simple Shapes) Students must read the Brothers Grimm stories 'Hansel & Gretel' and 'Little Red Riding Hood' in advance (optional: read one other Brothers Grimm story of your choice). We will begin by looking at drawings by other artists. You will respond to images suggested by Brother Grimm's fairy tales. You will create manual collages (cutting out and moving things to suit the composition) to emphasise underlying large shapes that make up the general composition.	Bankside Studio 3 Carl Randall	Variety of A4 coloured paper (as many colours as possible - can be bought in A4 or A3 packs). Scissors, pencils, pen, charcoal, erasers, A3 sketchbooks, ink, card, tracing paper, glue, brushes. Students must read the Brothers Grimm stories 'Hansel & Gretel' and 'Little Red Riding Hood' in advance. Mobile phone with internet access.	No
4	Wednesday 5th February 2025	'Stealing from Art History'. As a starting point for an original composition, you will take ideas and visual elements you like in one or more famous artworks from history, using collage and line drawing to develop an original composition. Please bring a variety of printed images from art history. 5	Wednesday 12th February 2025	Drawing from Movies/Self-Portrait. In the morning, you will make numerous pencil sketches from specific frames of movies, using them as a starting point for your own self portrait composition. In the afternoon, you will manipulate your sketches using drawing and manual 'found collage', introducing your own portrait into the composition. 6	Wednesday 26th February 2025	Empty Space in Art. An exercise focused on incorporating negative/blank/empty space into compositions. These ideas used in traditional East Asian art (and its influence on picture-making in general) will also be looked at. 7	Wednesday 5th March 2025	Movement/Dynamism. Looking at ideas and motifs used by artists to create a sense of dynamism and movement in their compositions, which you will also try out. 8	Wednesday 12th March 2025	Thumbnail Sketches/Still-life. A lesson designed to explore (in a more in-depth way) an idea introduced earlier in the course of generating ideas via the use of 'thumbnail sketches'. Students are asked to bring in 3-4 small-scale objects of their own, with which they will use to create their own still-life arrangement. These objects can just be chosen for their visual properties, and/or have personal significance. Objects must be small enough to fit onto a small table in the class. Alternatively, objects from the Academy's still-life collection can be used. 9	Wednesday 19th March 2025	Personal Project - Week 1. Generation & development of ideas. You will be required to bring in a wide selection of reference material for this personal project, the theme/idea of which will be decided by yourself (it is advisable to start research for this, collecting images, a few weeks in advance). Based on your chosen idea/theme/project, and using your	Bankside Studio 3 Carl Randall	Large variety of images/research made in advance, relevant to your chosen idea/theme/project. 		images you will generate a large range of small throw-away thumbnail sketches, trying out different possibilities to visualise ideas. Emphasis will be placed on free-thinking, lack of self-criticism, and generation of as many ideas as possible. This should be helpful for the construction of images in the following week.
10	Wednesday 26th March 2025	Personal Project - Week 2. Execution of final idea/composition. Having arrived at the final composition/idea at the end of the previous lesson, today is used to simply execute/render the final image. Use any drawing materials you think you would like to make your final image from. Any scale you wish to work on (but bearing in mind there is only one day for this).
