16/03/2025	In this exciting, new one day course, students will immerse themselves in the genre of floral painting. Starting with a presentation by your tutor, we will look at the art historical lineage of flowers as subject matter and how this genre continues to inspire artists to this day. Students will begin to paint via a series of short exercises intended to develop their awareness of composition, paint application, tone and colour. You will then work from a selection of vibrant arrangements for the rest of the class. Throughout the day your tutor will guide you from the first steps of choosing your composition to completion of your finished painting.	No
